

Spring 2018 Integrative Biology Seminars

January 26	Dr. Rosemary Knapp University of Oklahoma Host: Grindstaff	Recent insights into alternative male reproductive tactics in bluegill sunfish from transcriptomics and hormone manipulations
February 9	Dr. Jessica Light Texas A&M University Host: McBee	Evolutionary and ecological insights from symbiotic associations and the importance of natural history museums in research
February 23	Dr. Warren Booth Tulsa University Host: Bolek	Snakes: A model system to study facultative parthenogenesis in vertebrates
March 2	Dr. Kim Ritchie University of South Carolina Beaufort Host: Grad Students	Corals and microbial adaptation to climate change
April 20	Dr. Jonathan Shurin University of California – San Diego Host: Dzialowski	Climate and control of mountain lake food webs from top to bottom
April 27	Dr. John Wiens University of Arizona Host: Moen	Understanding the origins and future of biodiversity patterns

Everyone is Welcome!
103 Life Sciences West at 3:30
Refreshments at 3:15

